

All that matters – Kees Kraayenoord

You are all that matters, all that satisfies, all that gives me life and stand the test of time, You are my portion, my only passion
You mean everything to me, everything

You are all that matters, all that satisfies, all that gives me life
and stand the test of time, You are my portion, my only passion
You mean everything to me, everything

I give You all I have
Lord I love You and adore You
I come just as I am
To worship with my whole heart

Jesus, Jesus

You are all that matters, all that satisfies, all that gives me life
and stand the test of time, You are my portion, my only passion
You mean everything to me, everything

Lord my life is in Your hands,
Would You fashion, would You form me
Fulfil Your purpose and Your plan
I'm surrendered to Your ways
I give You all I have
Lord I love You and adore You
I come just as I am
To worship with my whole heart

Jesus, Jesus

You are all that matters, all that satisfies, all that gives me life
and stand the test of time, You are my portion, my only passion
You mean everything to me, everything

All that, all that, all that matters, All that, all that matters, You are
All that, all that, all that matters, All that, all that matters, You are
All that, all that, all that matters, All that, all that matters, You are All that, all that, all that matters
